A quote from the artist is displayed: 'American sculptor Jedd Novatt is well known for his welded and painted steel sculptures – often in cube-like forms – as well as his black-and-white collages. Playing with scale and seemingly defying gravity, his sculptures challenge expectations. The artist says: "The form I focus on most is the inverse of the material of the work: the space that surrounds it, which I imagine as solid. The creation of this negative space is part of the work."' Below the quote are buttons for 'Email', 'Share', and 'Tweet'. To the right of the main content area, there is a section for 'IN ASSOCIATION WITH' featuring the Rolex logo, and a 'COMPANION ARTS & CULTURE' section with a '7:21 AM' and '2:21 PM' time slot. At the bottom of the page, there is a 'http://www.bbc.com/culture/calendar' link.
