29 AUGUST

Couleur du Temps By Agathe de Baillencourt

ART & PHOTOGRAPHY

Art buff or not, Agathe de Baillencourt's new series Couleur du Temps will transport your mind and soul to a calmer world.

Dealing with the question of horizon, as one of painting's most basic acts in defining time, space, and a scale of infinity, revel in the works of Agathe. This extremely peaceful exhibition will help in leaving the bustle of the city and the worries of work behind, so if you're looking for a way to get your mind off the endless pressure from your city-life, remember to check out Couleur du Temps this August.
