

Title: Culture Stop: World's Best New Galleries and Museums
Publication: Blouin Artinfo
Date: July 2013
Source: <http://www.blouinartinfo.com/travel/slideshow/culture-stop-worlds-best-new-galleries-and-museums/?image=9>

BLOUIN ARTINFO

CULTURE+TRAVEL

Culture Stop: World's Best New Galleries and Museums

by BLOUIN ARTINFO on July 08, 2013

Chun Kwang Young's abstract textured paintings at Art Plural Gallery -- Courtesy of Art Plural Gallery

Singapore: Art Plural Gallery

Art Plural is a two-year-old gallery set up by Swiss dealer Frederic de Senarclens as a sassy injection into Singapore's gallery scene. Expect a fresh selection of international modern and contemporary art in this elegant space; previously featured artists include English painter Ian Davenport and India's enfants terribles, the artist duo Thukral&Tagra. The current show by top Korean artist Chun Kwang Young showcases his abstract textured paintings that recall lunar landscapes. If Art Plural leaves you wanting more, pop across the street to The Substation for a grittier experience. This rough-and-ready haven shows emerging art. —

Adeline Chia

38 Armenian Street
Tel: +65-6636-8360